1. Budget- PS=$6,265.40 EQ=$703.31 CE=$1,657.06
2. Recreation Center
 - A. Calendar- see reverse
 - B. Attendance- November=125 participants
 - C. Other-
 - A new 55" television was purchased for $728.00
 - The facility was used for a Birthday Party in November
 - Trying a few vacation activities to increase attendance

Pat C. asked if an "as needed" bus pickup could be made available to children seeking a ride home from the Rec Center during the already scheduled 4PM late bus route. Michelle H will look into this.

3. Summer Programs

4. Winter Programs

A. Gore Regional School Program-A total of 31 students have signed up for the program this year. Program dates are Sunday January 6, 13, 27 and February 3, 10, 24 2013. Anticipating three chaperone passes which will be given to Michelle H, Cheryl R, and Don R. Cheryl R. expressed concerns about a particular student. Michelle H will contact the parent to discuss.

5. Other

A. Vincent Palazzo has submitted a resignation letter to the Recreation Commission. Pat C. mentioned that Sue Housner had expressed interest in joining the commission if a space became available.

B. 2013 Craft Fairs- As the basketball courts have been newly resurfaced, consider eliminating the courts as a space for vendors to set up tents. Space being an issue, eliminating the courts may not be possible, but Would like the TB to consider the following concerns

- The grills in the picnic area, across from the basketball courts, are covered with garbage bags, to prevent people from grilling, as the vendors complain about the smoke filling tents. Michelle H noted that the hillside is under utilized and suggested that the vendors be made to use that area instead of a prime picnic area.
- That Gail Street monitors the vendor parking. Some vendors are parking all day without paying. Wendy B. suggested that a special Craft Vendor pass be sold to the vendors for $10 if they wish to park in the lot. She also suggested allowing the handicapped vendors be allowed to park behind the library or close to attendant booth or have spaces saved on 9N near the Chamber of Commerce building.

6. Old Business: Update on leak in basement and update on fire door moved to next month.

Respectfully Submitted, Michelle Huck
